

Discoveries by Designers

Merchant Marine

Sarlo Wick (415-863-2002; www.sarlowick.com) continues to surprise clients with its one-of-a-kind pieces, such as a pair of French 1930s brass maritime lamps, $1,800 each, that were repurposed from their original seafaring state.

Gabriella Sarlo and Will Wick combine high style with unusual statement pieces.

Light Brigade

Chameleon Fine Lighting has amassed a collection of antique lighting, as well as a historically faithful line of replicas. The four-candelabrum pagoda lantern, $3,800, is newly made of brass and painted metal.

Chameleon Fine Lighting, 223 E. 59th St.
New York, NY 10022; 212-355-6300
www.chameleon59.com

Living Modern

Richard Schultz's circa 1960 redwood Petal table, $4,000, for Knoll is at Modern Living Supplies (646-373-1579; www.modernlivingsupplies.com) in New York. The original design was created to accompany the Knoll Bertoina chairs.

Forge Ahead

City Studio (323-343-9670; www.citystudiola.com) designs and manufactures furnishings, while offering design-savvy vintage pieces such as a 1970s hand-forged Hermès-style metal chair, $2,200, with intricate belt details.

